Most of the Easter music of the Episcopal church was composed by John P. Meder, who is making quite a reputation as a composer.

The Easter music and services at the churches Sunday were especially fine, and large congregations gathered in each place of worship.

Those intending to visit the Midwinter Fair had better hurry up if they want to get there before it breaks up in a row.—Truckee Republican.

Parents who want their children to learn to dance should bring them to the Armory Hall on Saturday afternoons where Miss May Bryant will instruct.

The Eureka Land Office is now quartered in the United States Land Office in this city, but it will be a month before Land Agent Hall can take the place made vacant by Willis Clarke.

"Billy" Hall, former of the Holmes Company at Candelaria, shot himself through the brain with a 22-calibre rifle Sunday afternoon, dying instantly. It is thought his mind was deranged.

The Knights Templar banquet was arranged by Gilbert Briggs of the Briggs' House, and those who were fortunate enough to see and partake of it, speak in the highest terms of Gib. as a caterer.

A Big Show Coming.

The "Up-to-Date" farce-comedy success, "A Railroad Ticket," will be the attraction at the Opera House on next Friday evening, March 30.

The plot is based upon the incidents of every day life in a railroad ticket broker's office. A pretty girl and a stolen ticket succeed in getting a number of people in complicated and funny situations. Numerous unique and novel mechanical effects are introduced, such as a fake rain machine, and a practical electric street car in active motion carrying passengers, conductor and motorman. The piece is said to be an extremely catchy farce-comedy, which is most remarkable in view of the fact of its being a new piece by new authors.

Visiting Knights.

On Sunday a delegation of Knights Templar from Reno and Virginia arrived in Carson and attended the Easter services at the Episcopal Church, in a body. After the service they repaired to the Masonic Hall, where a banquet was spread by the home lodge in honor of the visitors. It was an informal affair all around and Judge Hawley, Judge Murphy, Phil Doyle, Joe Kelly and others made a few impromptu remarks. It was voted by all to be a very pleasant and agreeable visit.

Trees.

French prune trees $15 per hundred, 12 1/2 cents each by the 1000 and 25 cents each by the dozen. Apples, Pears, Cherries, Plums and general nursery supplies and shade trees &c. OUR NEW YORK LETTER.

This is a great church-going country. There are only a few of us here who enjoy the distinction of not attending worship twice every Sunday. We few are classified under the general title of "heathens." If you never tried it you don't know what fun you are missing by not being a heathen. Us heathens, here, get a chance to rest on Sunday and to watch the great crowds of life. One Sunday I walked from this street over through a pious region and down toward the tenderloin. The gradual transition from hard-shell Baptists to hard, tough crowds, was curious.

The day was warm and bright so that many people were out. In the more cultured and clearly portion of the East Side I found young and old rich and poor flocking obediently to the sanctuaries. A little further along, the men had fewer prayer-books and more cigarettes. Still further the disposition to hurry into revival, sermon, or confession was less marked and another block found the people, equally great as to numbers, lounging about in the sun, indulging in questionable pursuits and driving business as lustily as on any other day. Young and old, poor and poorer were fighting widely shy of pews and pulpits.

Of course the tenderloin contains little that is not vicious and abandoned but on the whole New York is a very pious little place, as I said before.

I had forgotten my long neglected church calendar today, but was reminded of the proximity of the close of the lenten season, while walking along 7th avenue. I saw at a glance that this is Palm Sunday, for ever so many innocents were packed up and up wisp of green stuff that had been palmed off on them for something holy. Lent here is a bewitchingly fascinating fake for under show of sackcloth and ashes, the people have more fun than ever.

I have been intending to say a comforting word for the young ladies of your city and the West generally. It is simply this, that they are, as a rule, much prettier than the girls of the East. New York has of course, very many lovely girls, (I lose my heart several times in each block.) They are gay, stylish and bright looking too, but considered in regard to total numbers they are not as fine looking as the average girls of all the wooly West. M.

Will Close.

We, the undersigned merchants and business men of Carson City, agree to close our places of business on March 29th, 1894, between the hours of 10 at 12 a. m. and 2 and 4 p. m.; also at 7 p. m.

G. H. Meyers, Bell, Edwards & Co., C. F. Cutts, A. Baker, Mrs. Tennant, H. S. Wells, E. B. Rail, W. Hy Doane, A. Bergman, W. E. Adams, Sol Lowenberg, A. C. Hofer & Bro., G. W. Kitzmeyer, J. F. Lind, W. H. Sweetland, John Rosser, Job Sternberg, George Gillson, Joe Platt, M. A. Downey, Wm. Uren, A. J. Millard, W. D. Torreyson, Otto T. Schultz, M. Cohn, Cagwin & Noteware.

This is for the purpose of giving the business men and their clerks an opportunity to attend the revival services of Mr. Crittenton. At last night's meeting a vote of thanks was unanimously tendered the signers.

Ellie Ellsler.

During Ellie Ellsler's engagement at the Opera House on Saturday will be presented for the first time in this city, Robert Drouet's new and successful play "Doris," and much interest is being manifested by the admirers of this popular actress to see her in a new role, and one which report says, "will be as well known in connection with her name, as any in which she has ever appeared." The character was written especially for Miss Ellsler, and is a most exacting one, but this talented actress is credited with responding fully to its demands and in every instance her portrayal has been the occasion of an enthusiastic demonstration from her audiences.

The Welland Saloon.

W. Whitney has assumed control of the Welland saloon, which he proposes to run strictly up to the times. He will dispense the best liquors and cigars and fine old Government whiskey, which slides down your throat like oil, tickling your palate meanwhile. Call and see "Handsome Whit." fl1

It is still hoped that Cleveland will sign the Seigniorage bill.

THE JUSTICE COURT.

Old Moses Schers up and Transacts Business.

Yesterday afternoon old Judge Moses who has been boozing about the country for several weeks sobered up and again took his place on the bench. He hasn't taken a bath or shave since he started in on his big bat, and he was the toughest looking judge that ever sat in the court. The first case was that of an assault and battery made on the English language by Rollares Barker. He pleaded guilty and was fined $8. Hearing his sentence he climbed out of the back window and escaped. The court did not notice his disappearance. Arthur McEwen was up for libeling M. H. De Young, and was put under $10,000 bonds. He threw a sack containing the amount on the table and treated the crowd, slowly walking away.

Wallace the banjo man was fined $10 for disturbing the peace. Joe Harvey paid it on the spot.

Dick Foote was charged $40 for shooting off firearms inside the city limits, and carrying concealed weapons.

Harry Flannery paid $30 for the privilege of throwing a waiter over the ramparts of his restaurant.

The Guards who resided the Appeal office last week were thrown in the county jail.

Some spielsers for the Midway who attempted to lick the Camp gate keeper were sent up for twenty four hours.

A man who threw a quid of tobacco in the courts eye was shot dead.

Mexican Liz was fined $5 for drunken conduct.

Cross Eyed Annie, Spanish Pete and Hobo Jim paid $5 each for being full on St. Patrick's day.

The court was in a how-come-you-so condition when it adjourned. He pocketed the fines and started to buck the tiger and drink all the whisky in Camp.—Midwinter Appeal.

Davis-Spooner.

MARRIED—In Carson, March 25, 1894, (Easter Sunday,) by Rev. Geo. R. Davis, Mr. Will Davis and Miss Ida Spooner, at the residence of the officiating clergyman.

Only relatives of the contracting parties were present, and a repast of cake and wine was served after the ceremony.

During the evening the couple were serenaded by the Carson Junior Turn Verein, who came in a body, rendering several popular airs on a quartette of harmonicas.

The bride is the elder daughter of M. E. Spooner, the well known wood contractor, and the groom the brother of the APPEAL editor, but being in temporary charge of the paper refrains from making an extended notice of the event, for obvious reasons.

A New Club.

Another hunting and fishing club has been organized in this city. O. Tennant has been elected Secretary, Dan Kitzmeyer, Treasurer and Chas. Thrall will probably be President. The club has not as yet been named, but their lodge will be located somewhere between Jimmy Arthur's and Snippy's, this end of Washoe Lake. The club already has quite a large membership, and consists mostly of young men.
